

Losing Harry

Steven P. Riley
The Strategic Counsel, L.C.

A true story about protecting loved ones

Attorney Steve Riley

Have you ever worried about what would happen to your family if something happened to you?

Would things happen the way you want? Would they know what to do? Or even where to start?

Would they be prepared for the legal and financial decisions they would have to make?

Would they have professionals to turn to that you can trust? Or would they be at risk of being taken advantage of?

If you have any of these concerns, Losing Harry is a book for you. Losing Harry is based on a true story of Bettye Jean Manee and how she coped with losing her husband of over 50 years. In this story she shares how The Strategic Counsel Law Firm guided her through the legal and financial maze of losing a loved one. Bettye Jean will share with you the emotional impact of having trusted support. If you've ever worried about how your loved ones will get along if something happened to you, spend a few minutes reading Losing Harry. Not only will you meet friends in Harry and Bettye Jean Manee, and their niece and nephew, Dub and Pec, but you will learn that you can put your family on a path to provide guidance and protection.
